UNIT LEADER REQUIREMENTS

Theodore Roosevelt was a key founder of the Nassau County Council (now the Theodore Roosevelt Council). He was the first Council Commissioner, and the only Chief Scout Citizen named by the Boy Scouts of America. The Theodore Roosevelt Medal is recognition of TR's impact on Scouting by celebrating the individual achievement of youth and leaders who earn specific BSA awards that celebrate conservation, community service, personal fitness, and activities specific to Sagamore Hill, the TR residence and National Historic Site in our council or National Park Service sites.

Unit Leaders can earn the award. The completed requirements are submitted with an advancement report to the Theodore Roosevelt Council Service Center for review and processing. Please provide payment for the medal with the submission of the requirements – the cost of the medal is $ xx.xx.
